

Christina Thompson

Tina is a photographer living and working in Winnipeg. Originally from Portage la Prairie, she moved to Winnipeg to hone her photography skills at Prairie View School of Photography. Her focus is mainly on portrait and environmental photography, working both in digital and film. She has shot bands, models and artists and has had her work published internationally both online and in print. To view some of her work visit:

<http://www.missmetro.net/>